Andy Manthei's success within JBL Companies' Brokerage Division can be attributed to his superior market knowledge and his skill in building lasting relationships with his clients. Andy's dedication serving his clients comes from a promise made upon the introductory meeting and continues well after the transaction is complete. His professional and ethical business practices come standard and are a cornerstone of the service he provides his clients.

Professional Responsibilities

As a member of JBL Companies, Andy works on behalf of a variety of institutional and entrepreneurial clients, whether they are landlords or tenants, buyers or sellers. He fully understands and is experienced with the complexities of the entire sale and lease negotiation process and is able to efficiently guide his clients from beginning to end ensuring complete satisfaction.

Building on Success

Andy joined JBL Companies in 2003 to expand his career in commercial real estate. He was quick to recognize that it was crucial for him to gain knowledge and experience when representing his clients. He is dedicated to his clients and proactive in accommodating their needs and assisting them in achieving their goals. Andy's market knowledge has earned him a reputation as JBL Companies' resident expert in the southeast metro office and industrial market.
